

African American Performing Arts Community Theatre, Inc.

proudly presents

Directed by Teddy Harrell, Jr.

Margaret Alexander, the strong-willed female pastor of a storefront church in 1960s Harlem, is suddenly all-too-human in the eyes of her devout congregation when her long-lost musician husband returns. Margaret struggles to keep herself – and her leadership of the church – together as she confronts her feelings for this “wicked” man and her wayward son who has lost his faith. Her final reconciliation with her husband purges Margaret of bitterness and gives her the strength to continue her religious mission.

James Baldwin's powerful play about the double-edged sword of righteousness is transformed into a rousing, emotional play of faith and redemption.
